Program Update

Overall

Cycle 3 - Positive Feedback

-Faculty all believe this feels much better

“Cycle 3 is 1000x better.”

“This is the first time I feel really happy almost every day that I came to Kairos.”

-Positive Feedback from The Opportunity Trust Site Visit

“Staff speaks positively about the fact that the school consistently gets better, which aligns to the what leaders named, and staff speak highly about the school overall. They’re all in. (MH)”

“Kids generally appear happy to be here and many kids verbalize this too (KS)”

“Shifts that have taken in Dec. are palpable and feels rejuvenating (MH)”

Growth Plan

-Admin are setting goals for their team - Two new hires gives admin time/space to shift from reactive to proactive

-Constructive feedback from The Opportunity Trust Site Visit - Ideas to move from “good” (students calm, learning happening, etc.) to “great” (kids inspired to embody values, increasing rigor). Students feel sense of urgency (no option to “opt out”)

-Focus on prepping for Year 2 - Launching staff recruitment efforts: Best practice is to start in November/December; we're a little behind. Student recruitments: 26 students have filled out registration form (Pacing toward diversity goals). Reach goal: 40 students by end of January (on track)

Culture and Academics

Culture

-Started student survey after each period to get feedback on whether the environment was safe, productive, and kind. Here are last week's results:

Safe: 91% (4.56 on a 1-5 Likert scale)

Productive: 84% (4.22)

Kind: 88% (4.41)

-Faculty-student positivity ratio = 77% (close to the target 4:1)

Academics

-No objective data until next week's NWEA MAP winter assessment

-89% of students got a weekly check-in, at an average of 12.5 minutes (20% increase!)

Student Choice

-30%+ of students have earned self-direction choice

-Dress code change: Example of student council leadership & Parent approbation (83%)
