

Elementary School: November Principal's Report

Observation and Feedback

- Formal observations and feedback - occurring now. This is cycle two for most teachers.
- Some new teachers are on a more frequent observation/feedback cycle.

Data Driven Instruction

- We are currently meeting with TK, K and 1 teachers to review their SIPPS (phonics) data and make instructional decisions.
- All elementary staff is also receiving 3 hours of release time to collaborate with their team for Q2 this week.

School Culture

- Thankful November: Every week of November we have celebrated our elementary staff with a special treat. Apple nachos, crumble cookies, and special drinks.
