Approval of Meeting Minutes (Marci Sullivan)

Ms. Sullivan requested an amendment to the date (December 14th) and adjournment time (6:35). Mr. Grooms moved to approve the minutes. Dr. Washington seconded the motion. The motion carried with all board members in favor.

Ms. Sullivan updated the Board on a meeting with the attorney for the state (Rich Hogeland [sic]) and Martha focusing on who should participate in the school closure committee. The state provided a handbook largely focusing on delivery of instruction with as little disruption as possible.

Mr. Hall advised the state indicated they will help us through the process. After the audit there should not be much after June 30, 2023.

Financials (Mike Hall):

Mr. Hall reviewed the current financials. Our expenditures are at 50% of budget. Mr. Grooms moved for approval of the financial report. Dr. Washington seconded the motion. The motion carried with all board members in favor.

Culture and Climate Update (Mike Hall):

Mr. Hall indicated that although adults are concerned about their future it has not negatively impacted their work. Prospective employment lunch and learn on February 6th.

From the student standpoint interactions are consistent with the period prior to Christmas break. There is still work to be done but trending in the right direction. Ms. Sullivan indicated if help is needed through the process to let the board know (e.g., counselor or social worker).
